Marina Polesana Pula

Situated on the northern shore of the Pula Bay near the Brijuni Archipelago, this marina boasts 400 wet berths, 40 dry berths, modern amenities, and top-notch boat services.

Covering 112,055 m², the marina is part of Croatia's 5,835 km coastline, with Istria claiming 10% of its length.

Pula itself boasts a 30-kilometer coastline, being the largest city in Istria, renowned for its mild climate, serene waters, and unspoiled nature, with a rich history in winemaking, fishing, shipbuilding, and tourism.

Its appeal to tourists extends beyond its historical significance, with its diverse offerings including Istria's largest ancient heritage, stunning beaches, and vibrant nightlife.

A must-see is Croatia's iconic Roman Amphitheater.

Pula's extensive coastline is home to numerous breathtaking beaches, making it challenging to single out the most beautiful ones.
