Obvious mistakes in calculating the charterer fee or inadequacies referring to some of the terms within the Lease contract do not justify exiting from the Contract; rather, corrections may be duly undertaken, based on the current list of fees and the current contractual conditions of the Charter Company. Irregularities in equipment or gear (non-correspondence with inventory or equipment lists supplied to Client) do not authorize the Client to make any deductions – provided safety and operation of the vessel as such and functioning equipment are guaranteed.

Any possible concealed defects or deficiencies of the boat, which could not have been expected by Charter Company shall not entitle the Client to claim for the reduction of the charter rate.

The Charterer may refuse check-in if safety standards do not comply with national rules and regulations or if hull, bonding deck to hull, rig, sail or steering gear are damaged to such an extent that safety of both Vessel and crew can no longer be guaranteed.

The Check in/out list becomes an integral part of this Contract and it will be signed by the Client and the Crew on the occasion of taking over and returning of the yacht (check list).
